The Proposition Song - November 2010
By Kim Alexander, California Voter Foundation, www.calvoter.org

C
Oh we’re having an election,
D
November two’s the day
G7
There are nine state propositions
C
Come vote and have your say.

Prop. 19’s the first measure, it asks voters if we oughta
Regulate, tax and legalize marijuana
Each ten years congressional district lines get redrawn
Prop 20 says that job should go to a citizen commission.
Prop 21 would fund state parks with automobile fees
Prop 22 curbs state access to local government proceeds
C
It’s the Proposition Song!
C
Let’s all be singing along!

Cuz the ballot is too darn long.

Twenty-three suspends a law called “AB 32”
that seeks to slow down climate change and restricts what polluters do.
If voters pass Prop. 23, 32 it would prevent
From being law ‘til unemployment’s at 5.5 percent.

The next prop also seeks to keep a law from taking effect,
24 would halt newly enacted corporate tax credits.
There are just a few more measures, to sing of in this song
So hang on friends, we’re near the end
Of this proposition song.
You should all be singing along.
Cuz the ballot is too darn long.

Passing the state budget takes a two-thirds vote currently
Prop 25 would change it to a straight majority.
26 is also ‘bout vote margins, switching up the words
Instead of majorities to pass new fees, the vote would be two-thirds.
27’s yet another prop ‘bout political district lines
If it’s passed, the job goes to the politicians next time.
